1. Kinkaku-ji (Golden Pavilion)

First, we guide you to this shiny jewel box, one of the 17 UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Kyoto. Enjoy the Zen beauty and challenge to take a picture of the Pavilion with its reflection on the pond!

(Kyoto)

4. Lunch time!

Would you like to try something local? Arashiyama has many famous restaurants offering Japanese noodles, Kyoto vegetables and boiled tofu sets which is one of the healthiest dishes in the city.

(Arashiyama Area, Kyoto)

2. Tenryū-ji

The main attraction of this Zen temple is the famous Sogenchi garden with a pond shaped after the Chinese character 'kokoro' (心) meaning 'heart', 'mind' or 'spirit'.

UNESCO World Heritage Site!

(Arashiyama Area, Kyoto)

5. Wagashi Workshop

You can learn how to make traditional and colorful Japanese sweets called "wagashi" with a help of a craftsman and our English speaking driver! In the end of the class, you can try a fresh cup of matcha tea and enjoy a piece of wagashi. In the end of the workshop, you can bring home 2 pieces you made! (JPY 2,000/person)

(Arashiyama Area, Kyoto)

3. Bamboo grove

Yes, this is the Bamboo grove from your guide book! This famous path surrounded by the Bamboo forest is a beloved place of foreign visitors and also for Japanese travellers!

(Arashiyama Area, Kyoto)

6. Tōdai-ji

Your last destination is Nara which is mostly famous for the deers wondering freely in the Nara park and the world's largest bronze statue of Buddha Vairocana! Grab some Nara snacks for yourself or try the matcha ice-cream and do not forget to buy some treats for the deers! They will be happy to chase you around for their biscuits!
